The Harper County Board of Commissioners and the Attica City Council met for a special joint meeting. Commissioner Pence and Mayor Allenbach called the meeting to order at 12:00 p.m. at City Hall in Attica.

Members of the Attica City Council present – Alan Allenbach, Randy Newberry and Danny Porter.

Members of the Harper County Board of County Commissioners present – Carla Pence, Lee Adams and Brian Waldschmidt.

Others in attendance – Attica Asst. City Clerk Jamie Deviney, Troy Carlson, Melinda McCurley and Harper County Clerk Cheryl Adelhardt.

Troy Carlson, Initiatives Inc., presented information regarding the feasibility study for an electrical generation facility in Harper County. The goal is to enhance opportunities for economic/industrial growth throughout the County. Discussion was held regarding the electrical needs for the City of Attica, and options for collaborating on a project.

As there was no further business, the meeting was adjourned at 12:51 p.m. The next regular meeting for the Board of County Commissioners will be held Tuesday – March 1st at 9 a.m. in the Courthouse Commissioner Room.
